

De Valck seeking M/F, master deg, 4y+ exp in purchasing, intell. & geo. mobility, for a true and long term relationship. Contact : dtampe@devalckconsultants.com

Role	Your profile
The position available is a consultant job with a broad experience to work within the purchasing team. Your role as a consultant : <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Working operationally on projects for our clients, first to « do with them » before being able to understand and propose the application of a methodology to improve their purchasing function.• Taking part in the development of the commercial offer and the methodology• Participating to the commercial development of the Business Unit: detecting needs, building the best solution with the manager and training your colleagues as consultants and then the clients in your expertise area.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Civil engineer specialized in purchasing with 4 years experience or MBA with IT purchasing experience• Listening skills and ability to reconsider opinions.• Dynamic, client oriented and good negotiator.• Intellectual mobility, geographical mobility to be discussed, willing and used to work in an international environment.• Service oriented• Training ability• Fluent in English, French and/or Dutch and one or two other languages.

First project	You can expect from us
<Example of a potential project> You work for a client where IT systems are a key for operations and competitiveness. You are in charge of buying hardwares, softwares, maintenance and services. You lead cost reductions, negotiate with suppliers and choose the best technical and strategical solutions. You have an excellent knowledge of IT products and services. You participate to the purchasing strategy of your commodity, find synergies, assist in technical specifications, set up RFQ, analyze results, choose suppliers and create contracts. You have an excellent knowledge of the IT market and suppliers best practices. You follow up suppliers and lead continuous improvement with them by taking action plans.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• A personal and serious follow up of your projects and your career with your manager.• A strong team who participates in the recruitment process.• A personalized training• An international environment• A personalized career path and salary evolution: technical expert, manager, project leader, strategical purchasing, purchasing for important international projects...

De Valck Consultants is a Belgium consulting company with 200 persons, based in Brussels, and present in Lille, Antwerp and Madrid. Our growth rate (+20% per year since 2001 in turnover and employees) is developing in 5 branches: Purchasing, Innovation, Lean Manufacturing, Pharmaceutical Engineering, and Microelectronics Design.

The Purchasing Business Unit, created 3 years ago and managed by Damien Tampé (dtampe@devalckconsultants.com) is divided in 2 areas, based on a methodology of improvement of the purchasing function and performances in purchasing as well as an "à la carte" offer: resources and skills, professional expertise, negotiation, training, sourcing and supplier development.

The offer and the team operate in :

- The following areas: category, projects and capital purchasing, prototype or mass production, and soon indirect purchasing.
- The following sectors : aeronautical, automotive, railway, pharmaceutical, electrical, heavy industry, mass consumption goods, et soon public purchasing
- From purchasing to supply chain, quality, procurement and e-procurement tools.
- From a junior (3 years experience) to a senior level (15 years experience)

Please answer to: dtampe@devalckconsultants.com with ref DVC/ANIT/ECB/181207